The bidders shall indicate on the prescribed financial bid format, item-wise and final bid price of the items listed. Taxes/ incidental charge if any, payable by the bidder for the execution of work under this tender shall be included in the final bid price. The quoted prices must be on freight on road basis to A.P. Legislature Secretariat. A bid submitted with an adjustable price will be treated as non-responsive and rejected.

11. The Secretary-General reserves the right to accept or reject any or all the tenders at any stage without specifying any reason thereof.

12. Opening of Bids: Technical bid will be opened by first followed by financial bid, by the tender committee constituted for the purpose by the Secretary-General.

13. Attendance: Prospective bidder representatives shall sign a register evidencing their attendance at pre bid meeting and technical bid evaluation time.

14. Preliminary Examination: Before starting evaluation, the bids will be examined to determine whether they are complete in all respect, whether any computational errors have been made, whether required sureties have been furnished, whether the documents have been properly signed, and whether the bids are generally in order. In case of computational error, the basic price quoted in words will prevail. If bid is determined as not substantially responsive, the committee will reject it and the financial bids of only the substantially responsive bids will be considered.

15. The process of evaluation of bid is as follows:

a. The tender committee, appointed by the Secretary-General, will first verify if the DD for EMD is in order and as per requirement of the bid. The committee will examine the bid on eligibility criteria as specified. The scrutiny of technical proposals will be based on the evaluation criteria determined by the committee. The bidders may be asked one by one to make a presentation of the technical specification being offered by them in their technical bid and show case the sample of their previous printing work as a part of technical evaluation. The bidders are therefore advised to come prepared for presentation with samples of their previous printing work for a live display before the committee on the date specified for opening of bids.

b. The financial bid of only those bidders will be opened whose technical bids are substantially responsive and approved by the committee. The financial bid will be opened on the day specified for the opening of the bid. The committee, appointed by the Secretary-General, will open the financial bids of eligible bidders and scrutinize the same minutely. In case, the financial bid is not opened on the day of opening of technical bid, the committee may decide to open the financial bid on subsequent dates. In such case, the date, time and place of opening of financial bid will be notified on the website or conveyed over the phone to the participating bidders.

16. After scrutiny and after having examining the proposal as per the requirement of this Secretariat, the Secretary-General may accept the price bid of the bidder whose bid is found to be the lowest in terms of cost or the one which is most technically viable or any other bid found suitable or reject any or all of the bids, without assigning any reasons thereof. The decision of the Secretary- General in this regard shall be final and binding to the bidders.

17. Service support requirement:

a) Successful bidder will ensure that the deliverables are ready before the assigned date specified for delivery in the tender documents. Any change in the time lines of the delivery of printed material shall be provided in the work order or communicated to the bidder well in advance keeping in view the convenience of the bidder. 23. Performance Security: The successful bidder will be required to submit equivalence of 5% of the work order value as a guarantee for the satisfactory performance of the work under this tender. The performance security should be in the form of bank guarantee from any scheduled bank and as per the prescribed format provided in the tender document.

24. Sub Letting: The successful bidder cannot assign or transfer and sub-let its interest/ obligations under this tender.

25. Termination of Contract for default: The Secretary-General, may, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default, sent to the successful bidder, terminate the work order associated with this tender in part or whole.

a. If the successful bidder fails to deliver any or all the goods within the time period specified in the work order, or any extension thereof granted by the Secretary-General.

b. If the successful bidder fails to perform any other obligation(s) under this tender; and

c. If the successful bidder, in either of the above circumstances, does not remedy his failure within a period (or such longer period as the Secretary-General may authorize in writing) after receipt of the default notice from the Secretary-General. In the event, the Secretary-General terminates the work order in whole or in part pursuant to above para this Secretariat may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, goods similar to those undelivered and the successful bidder shall be liable to the Secretary-General for any excess cost for such similar goods. However, the successful bidder shall continue the performance of the work to the extent not terminated.

26. Termination of work order for Insolvency: The Secretary-General may at any time terminate the work order with out giving written notice to the successful bidder, without compensation to the successful bidder, if the successful bidder becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent as declared by the competent Secretary-General.

27. Governing law and dispute resolution: The obligation under this tender shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of India. All disputes or differences whatsoever arising between the parties, out of or in relation to the meaning, scope or execution of work or failure to execute the same whether arising during the progress of the work or after the completion or abandonment thereof or breach thereof, shall be settled amicably. If, however, the parties are not able to resolve such dispute or difference amicably, the same shall be referred for arbitration to a sole arbitrator, the person appointed by the Secretary-General, A.P. Legislature Secretariat, Velagapudi. In case any party wants to take the dispute to a court of law after arbitration award as aforesaid, it is expressly agreed that only the courts in Guntur shall have the jurisdiction.

28. Force Majeure: If any time, during the continuance of the work under this tender, the performance in whole or in part by either party under obligation as per this tender is prevented or delayed by reasons of any war or hostility, act of the public enemy, civil commotion, sabotage, fire, flood, explosion, epidemic, quarantine restrictions, strike, lockout or acts of God (hereinafter referred to “eventuality”), provided notice of happening of any such eventuality is given by either party to the other within 7 days of the date of occurrence thereof, neither party can make any claim for damages against the other in respect of such non-performance or delay in performance and deliveries under the purview of the work. The work shall be resumed as soon as practicable after such “eventuality” has come to an end or ceased to exist. In case of any dispute, the decision of the Secretary General, A.P. Legislature Secretariat, shall be final and conclusive, provided further that if the performance in whole or part of any obligation under this tender is prevented or delayed by reason of any such eventuality for a period exceeding 30 days, either party may at its option, terminate the contract with prior information and with mutual consent.
